Re: Income Disclosure Form

Dear Butch,

In addition to the enclosed income disclosure forms, I would like to supplement my report to make sure that the other sources of revenue described herein are clearly understood and made a part of the public record.

As you know from last year's report, my former spouse, Simone Dupré, is an attorney with Voorhies & Labbé in Lafayette and worked there during the time that I served as a state representative. Her firm does represent the state and/or state agencies. Simone, however, has no ownership or equity interest in the firm. She is only employed as a staff attorney. In addition, I would like to point out that my partner has served as one of the two public defenders for the 13th Judicial District Court. He has served the court in that capacity for several years. He is appointed by the judges of the district court and serves at their pleasure. Although the gross proceeds from that work is deposited into the law office account of Vidrine & La Fleur, pursuant to our partnership agreement the net proceeds from that service flows through to my partner, John Larry Vidrine. The IRS form 1099 that is prepared by the court to account for this work is issued to and only in the name of John Larry Vidrine.

I would appreciate it if you would make this part of my income disclosure file. If you have any questions, please feel free to give me a call.

Sincerely,

Eric La Fleur
